Havana

Havana was the last of the 7 Villas founded by Diego Velazquez order..

What we call Old Havana now was founded by Spaniards on November 16, 1519 in the natural harbor of Havana, it became them a transit stopping point to Spaniards ships uploaded of treasures on their way from the new world to Spain. On the XVII century Havana was one of the main shipping construction center. The old center maintains and interesting mix of Baroque and neoclassical monuments, as well as an homogeneous private houses set with arcades, balconies, gates of wrought iron and interior courtyards.

The first settlement was built at the west edge of the harbor. The harbor entrance is flanked by four stunning fortress built using calisa rocks. Two of this fortress are located in the main entrance of the canal bay, at the north The Morro Castel actually a maritime museum and at the south La Punta Castle actually stand the Fortification and Arm museum. Another two fortress border the canal, the huge San Carlos de la Cabaña fortress at the north and Real Fuerza Castle at the south.

Santa Clara

Possessor of beautiful landscapes and tourist attractions where plains and mountains are alternated, Villa Clara also conserves colonial villages and cities in the middle of industrial development, fishermen's towns and welcoming tourist facilities. This city was founded the 15 of Julio 1689 by residents of the coastal region of San Juan de los Remedio.

Santa Clara is located in the center of the province of Villa Clara, or the city of Che as is also known.

Around their frequented Park Leoncio Vidal constructions of different architectural styles are located that goes from the colonial , neoclassicist, eclectic, art deco, until the postmodernism styles.

To the northeast of the territory are located the Cayos; Las Brujas, Ensenachos and Cayo Santa María among the most remarkable. Small beaches of limpid waters and fine white sand invite you to enjoy the beach.

Cienfuegos

This beautiful city of Cienfuegos, also well-known as The Pearl of the South was founded in April 22 1819 by French colons guided by Don Luis of Clouet. Next to one of the best bays in the world, for their dimensions, soaked and security, this city is considered an architectural jewel of great French influence. The impronta of the French families, becomes evident in the perfect rectilinear layout of its streets. Its bay of Jagua, is inspiration source for many and perfect scenario for all type of nautical activities. Among the places of notables patrimonial values are the Theater Terry; Nuestra Señora de la Purísima Concepción Church, the Provincial Museum, the City council, San Lorenzo's School and the Palacio Ferrer, among others.

Trinidad

As detainee in time, Trinidad invites you to visit the museums, paved streets, squares and churches of the Humanity's city Patrimony still with the splendor of its foundation in the year 1514. Remain silent paved, wooden balustrades, balconies, horses cars and affable and simple people, they are features that distinguish Trinidad.

In this destination it is advisable the pleasure to be given a good sea bathroom in the beaches of Ancón peninsula the best in the south of the Island or to take an excursion to Topes de Collantes, heart of the Sierra of the Escambray.

Pinar del Río

City of beautiful flora and fauna, conserved nature, the village of Pinar del Rio was founded on September 10 1867. Is the most western province in the country and has the best tobacco plantation of the whole island.
